

Whitehall-Coplay School District

Affidavit of Custodial Arrangement

Both parents have rights to make decisions about the child, but only the custodial parent is the parent who may sign permission slips, report cards and excuses. The custodial parent is the parent who MUST be present at discipline meetings and sign for Individualized Education Programs. The other parent may be present and also sign. Only a court order can reduce the rights of a parent to be informed about or to have contact with a child. The child must live (eat/sleep) at the custodial parent's residence except as described as below:

Name(s) of Child(ren): _____ DOB _____
_____, _____ DOB _____

Name of Custodial Parent: _____
Address: _____

Name of Non-Custodial Parent: _____
Address: _____

The child is in physical custody of the (circle one) father/ mother, and lives with that custodial parent according to the arrangement described below:

The child will live with the custodial parent from _____ to _____ except for the following days or holidays: _____.

Please explain any other exceptions: _____
_____.

We swear the description of the custodial arrangement for our child(ren) is true and accurate and will be practiced to the best of our ability. Further, no court order is on file regarding custody of the child(ren). If this arrangement needs to be changed, we will notify the Whitehall-Coplay School District in writing before hand.
